Remarks :—

Land tenure in the Northern Provinces of Nigeria is governed by the Land and Native Rights Ordinance, 1916, under which Rights of Occupancy may be granted by the Governor to Europeans, Natives and Native Foreigners.

As a rule sites in townships are allotted after public auction to the bidder offering the highest premium. The area of a building site is usually limited to 2 acres in a Township and may not be more than 5 acres anywhere.

Rights of Occupancy may be granted for 60 or 35 years according to the amount which the purchaser is prepared to spend on improvements. Long leases with their security of tenure are generally desirable both from the point of view of the merchants and the Government.

Temporary Rights of Occupancy may be granted without auction in the case of bona fide pioneer enterprise on the following terms :—

Rent.—As obtainable or obtained for similar sites elsewhere.

Term.—Up to a maximum of 5 years renewable from year to year and terminable by either party on six months notice without compensation for improvements.

If at the end of the maximum period the holder desires an ordinary Right of Occupancy he can usually obtain one without auction unless there are good reasons to the contrary.

No single grazing right of occupancy may exceed 12,500 acres and only one has hitherto been granted, namely, to a Ranching Company who hold an area of 25,000 acres in two blocks for a term of 35 years with septennial revision at a rental of 2d. per acre.

No single Agricultural Right of Occupancy may exceed 1,200 acres. Only small areas up to 20 acres which are merely large gardens have been granted up to the present. Such Rights of Occupancy are not usually granted for areas adjoining the Railway or entailing the expropriation of a large number of the native population.

Rights of Occupancy may not be alienated in any way without the Governor's consent nor are they revoked by the Governor without good cause.

Appeal may be made against rent raised on revision to the Provincial Court or to the Governor who shall appoint an arbitrator, the decision in either case being final.

SOUTHERN PROVINCES :—The Crown Lands Ordinance, 1918, provides that, subject to the Regulations thereunder, the Governor may grant leases of Crown land for any term, or in the case of a lease to a native of Nigeria for an indefinite term, and may grant licenses for the temporary occupation of Crown lands, but except with the consent of the Secretary of State first obtained the Governor shall not sell any Crown lands.

Crown land is of limited extent. Outside the Colony it consists of lands purchased by the Government for public purposes, such as those required for the Eastern Division of the Railway, and those lands covered by the Treaties made by the Royal Niger Company with Native Rulers in Southern Nigeria, and which are vested in the Government by the Niger Lands Transfer Ordinance, 1916.

The Native Lands Acquisition Ordinance, 1917, provides that no alien shall acquire any interest in or over any lands within the Protectorate from a native except under an instrument which has received the approval in writing of the Governor, and that any instrument which has not received the approval of the Governor shall be null and void. It is further provided that it shall be unlawful for any alien to occupy land belonging to a native except under an instrument approved by the Governor, unless such land was occupied prior to the enactment of restrictive legislation, or is authorised by any Ordinance.

Fishing is carried on in all the rivers, most of the fish caught being used for immediate local consumption, but small quantities are cured and traded with the towns distant from the river, where this form of food is highly prized. The curing is a very crude process, the fish not being dried, but placed in a grass fire which burns quickly and with great heat, converting the scales of the fish into a protective cinder.

Agriculture.—There were no outstanding developments during the year. Improved cotton seed was distributed among native farmers at Government expense, and improved tobacco seed was distributed from the Government plantations.

Forestry.—The exploitation of secondary timbers was undertaken seriously during the year for the first time.

Mining.—During the year prospecting was commenced for silver lead at Ameka in the Ogoja Province. The Government geological survey was continued on the Bauchi Plateau and in the Oyo Province.

PREDIAL:—
Two headings of predial labour.
(a) Every village farm belongs to an individual or to a family, and is worked for the benefit of the owner or owners. Cultivation by village communistic system is very rare. Wherever it exists, the farmers in the village combine to clear the ground or reap the crops of the farms of each other in rotation. Food and drink for those at work during the period—which does not exceed one or two days for each farm—are provided by the owner or owners of the farm.
(b) Labour employed by owners of land.
(1) Employed by private owners of land remunerated at rates varying from 6d. to 1s. per diem. Overseers paid from 1s. to 1s. 8d. per diem.
(2) Contract system at the rate of £1 to £2 per acre.
(b) Domestic Service:—
In Native houses, domestic servants, males and females, are generally clothed and fed, and paid wages from 10s. to 20s. per mensem. In foreign households, male servants only are employed, they are usually housed and fed, and are paid wages from £4 per mensem downwards.

Questions.

I. If the prison is on a separate system, is the separation complete? And if not, what is the separation enforced by day and night respectively?

II. If not on the separate system, what provision is there for the supervision of the prisoners while in association?

III. How many cells are there; and how many associated wards?

IV. Taking the average number of prisoners in gaol, how many cubic feet of space are there for each prisoner during the hours of sleep?

And what superficial area?

V. How are the prisoners classified?

VI. Is penal labour—that is, labour by treadmill, crank, or shot drill—in force?

VII. If so, during what periods of imprisonments, in respect of what classes of prisoners, and during how many hours, is such penal labour enforced? In stating hours of tread-wheel labour, give, first, the total time on and off at the wheel, &c.; secondly, the length of spells and intervals of rest.

VIII. What kind of labour, other than penal labour, is in use?

Answers.

The prison at Lagos is the only one on the separate system, but the prisoners work in association during the day.

At other prisons there are association wards with a few separate cells, but they are principally used as punishment cells.

All prisoners work in association.

Male prisoners are under the constant supervision of warders, and female prisoners under wardresses.

526 separate cells, and 459 association wards.

594 cubic feet.

50 square feet.
